

Eli (Olsen) LaGreca, 84

Eli (Olsen) LaGreca, a resident of Duxbury since 1947, died suddenly on December 16 at the age of 84. She is the beloved wife to Anthony F. LaGreca and loving mother of Susan A. Morrison and her husband Tracy Morrison of Duxbury and the late Anthony F. LaGreca Jr. and Elizabeth LaGreca. Cherished grandmother of Paul Morrison and his wife Katie and Kyle Morrison and the late Nicholas LaGreca; great grandmother of Avery Lynne. She was pre-deceased by her eight brothers and sisters of Norway. Also survived by many nieces and nephews.

Born in Bergen, Norway on February 4, 1931, a daughter of the late Andreas and Harda Sophia (Olsen) Olsen. Educated in Norway, Eli came to the US at the age of 17 to visit her older brother and his wife. While here, she was introduced to her beloved husband and best friend Tony of 66 years. She was a fabulous homemaker and loved to entertain for family and friends. Through the years she worked at the Duxbury Children's Shop, Buttner's in Plymouth and at the Duxbury Middle School as a teacher's aide. Eli was a true animal lover, giving homes to many animals through the years. She loved music, dancing, singing and being outdoors gardening. Most of all, she loved sharing time with her family.

A funeral service was held on Tuesday, December 22 in the Cartmell Funeral Home, 150 Court St., Plymouth. Burial in the Mayflower Cemetery in Duxbury.

Memorial donations may be made to the MSPCA 350 South Huntington Ave, Boston, MA 02130 or .pva.org. More info and online guestbook visit cartmellfuneralhome.com